

CARE FOR CHILDREN AMBASSADOR TOOLKIT

OUR VISION IS TO SEE
A MILLION CHILDREN
MOVED FROM INSTITUTIONAL CARE
INTO FAMILIES.

CARE FOR CHILDREN WORKS TO GIVE DISADVANTAGED CHILDREN THE OPPORTUNITY TO GROW UP IN LOVING FAMILIES WHO WILL NURTURE THEM TO REACH THEIR FULL POTENTIAL.

WE DELIVER PROFESSIONAL TRAINING AND SUPPORT TO ORPHANAGE STAFF SO THEY CAN RECRUIT, ASSESS AND TRAIN FOSTER CARERS, AS WELL AS PLACE, SUPPORT AND MONITOR CHILDREN AS THEY MOVE INTO GOOD, LOCAL FAMILIES.

We train 1 family placement worker (let's call him Lee) in how to place children into good, local families.

Lee then places 20-25 children into good, local families.

Lee also trains 2-3 other family placement workers. Let's call them Bill, Ann and Ben.

Bill, Ann and Ben then each place 20-25 children into families.

Lee has also taught Bill, Ann and Ben how to train more family placement workers...

who then place even MORE children into local, loving families!

WHAT YOUR EFFORTS COULD DO

Meet Lu Lu. Lu Lu was diagnosed with congenital heart disease and placed into a family when he was 4 years old. At first, he was very withdrawn. He had no interest in playing with toys and would rarely speak. However, after living with his family for over three years, Lu Lu's behaviour has transformed.

As a result of Care for Children's ongoing training in high quality foster care and family placement for the staff at the orphanage where Lu Lu used to live, the staff have been able to provide resources and training for Lu Lu's foster family. His foster mother has been guided through these initial stages while Lu Lu has adapted to life in a family. She has dedicated time and effort to understanding Lu Lu and learning his personality. Because of the genuine love and patience of his foster mother, Lu Lu has ceased his harmful behavior and is incredibly attached to his foster mother.

Lu Lu has realized confidence and security within his foster family. He knows he has their support. When he plays with other children and has disagreements, he is able to come home and find comfort from his foster mother. She tells him: "Don't worry, Mom will back you up." This fills Lu Lu with joy.

Your efforts will help more children just like Lu Lu grow up in a loving family home!
