

A world of children in families

Care for Children

Did you know?

Did you know most of the world's 193 countries are still overly reliant on institutional care for orphans and vulnerable children?

A global urgency requires a global vision with a global strategy!

Join us in our vision to see 'a world of children in families'!

As Many As The Stars

As Many As The Stars is the remarkable story of how Robert Glover, together with his wife and six young children, launched Care for Children and moved to China from the UK to follow God's call, with a vision to see a million orphans and vulnerable children in families!

Available on Amazon, or contact: info@careforchildren.com

Children of Shanghai

A documentary feature about China's first generation of foster children. They reveal how they moved on from life in orphanages as young children to achieve success as young professionals, through the power of a loving family.
